No idea. But if you need help getting vials or packing material, let me know.

Also, I took the plastic bag out of your trash can and put it in the plastics recycling bin in the breakroom. Even in a crisis, I am the EMS noodle!

I'd also like to know what they actually want shipped. Do they want crude MCHM, neat MCHM, neat PPH, all three?

Thanks

Adam,

I didn't see anyone else respond so if you have time to ship tomorrow that would be great. I'll forward you the address, etc. in the morning.
